

CANCER

JUN 21 - JUL 22

Innately changeable and sometimes moody, Cancerians are ruled by the Moon. Just like their Lunar Lord, they wax and wane on a regular basis, possessing a rhythm all of their own. Deeply intuitive people, Cancerians can easily sense the emotional undertones in any situation and are affected by their environment.

As sensitive beings, Cancerians love to nurture, support and protect. Taking care of family is number one. As homebodies and entertainers, their abode is their castle and their place of strength. Cancerians love to cook (or at least share a meal) and enjoy taking care of those close to them. They can be counted on to offer a sympathetic ear - usually with a well-matched glass of wine.
